Finance Director

Kids In Crisis is seeking a Finance Director who will oversee the Finance Department to maintain its fiscal health and plan for a sustainable future. This individual will lead the development and implementation of financial and administrative strategy, while also overseeing special projects and initiatives. The Finance Director will report to the Managing Director of Operations, serve as a member of the Leadership Team, and work closely with other Department Heads. The Finance Director also will work closely with the Board Treasurer, and with the Audit and Finance Committees of the Board of Directors.

Qualifications:

- Bachelor's degree in Business, Economics, Finance, Non-Profit Management or other related field. CPA preferred or equivalent experience in nonprofit finance.
- Seven to ten years of financial experience, including five years supervisory experience. Experience planning and managing budgets for a nonprofit or similar organization, and overseeing audit processes.
- Connection to and passion for the work of Kids In Crisis: Ensuring the well-being of children through vital, 24/7 services.
- Robust understanding of financial accounting, with demonstrated success creating financial models, managing reporting, ensuring proper control and audit processes
- Collaborative approach to leadership, and the ability to work effectively with cross functional teams to meet goals and improve organizational performance.
- Track record of success working directly with Boards of Directors and relevant Board committees (i.e., Audit, Risk and Finance Committees).

This amazing, full-time opportunity offers the ability to work on initiatives that have a direct and positive impact on helping children and their families. This position offers a competitive base salary of $135,000 to $150,000 and comprehensive benefits, including medical, dental, 403B with employer matching, paid time off, sick time, paid holidays, Life, AD&D, Long-Term Disability, and an employee assistance program. This position works on a passionate, collaborative, and dedicated team and makes an incredible impact.
